Dear All Members,

NOTICE

This is for the information of the members that there are many cases filed against IISLA in different courts and one of the issue is related to membership roaster. Institute is to submit the status of members under an affidavit, which cannot be possible without getting member's affidavit also in this regard.

The members are accordingly advised to submit their status of professional working as per affidavit (performa enclosed - Click Here) so that an affidavit is accordingly prepared to submit in various court cases. Member should file the affidavit on stamp paper of Rs. 10.00 duly attested by a Notary/Magistrate

In order to expedite the matter timely, we expect the member's affidavit should reach Administrative office earliest, but not later than 25th Sept 2016. The members whose affidavit is not received shall have to be shown on Hold till the affidavit is received.

Members are also to be informed that in order to set our records of membership right, council shall shortly bring amendments in AOA for inclusion of Student and Licentiate membership and also level of membership as per provision of regulation 2015. This will settle and clear all complaints related to membership.

Members are accordingly requested/advised to cooperate.

With Regards,
Lalit Gupta
President - IISLA
