Respected members of IIISLA,

We are profoundly saddened by the sudden demise of our member & Chapter Chairman, Gujarat, Mr. Ajay Premnath Sharma.

His passing away has left a void in our hearts and an irreparable loss to our organisation.

Mr. Ajay was more than just a chapter chairman. He was a pillar of our organisation, a guiding force and a true leader

His tire less efforts selfless dedication and unwavering commitments to the welfare of the fraternity had inspired countless individuals.

His kindness, compassion and generosity knew no bounds. He was always willing to lend a helping hand, offer sage advice and provide encouragement to those who needed it. His absence will be deeply missed but his spirit and legacy will continue to inspire us.

As we mourn the loss of our beloved leader, we take comfort in the knowledge that his legacy will live in through us. We will strive to continue his work, uphold his values and make him proud.

May the soul of Mr. Ajay rest in the eternal peace and may his family ,friends and beloved ones find comfort and solace in the memories he shared with us.

With heartfelt condolences, we remain speechless.

On behalf of IIISLA H.O. and all our members, we extend our deepest and most sincere condolences to the family, friends and beloved ones. May you find strength and solace in the fond memories and legacy he leaves behind.
