Organized By
HARYANA CHAPTER

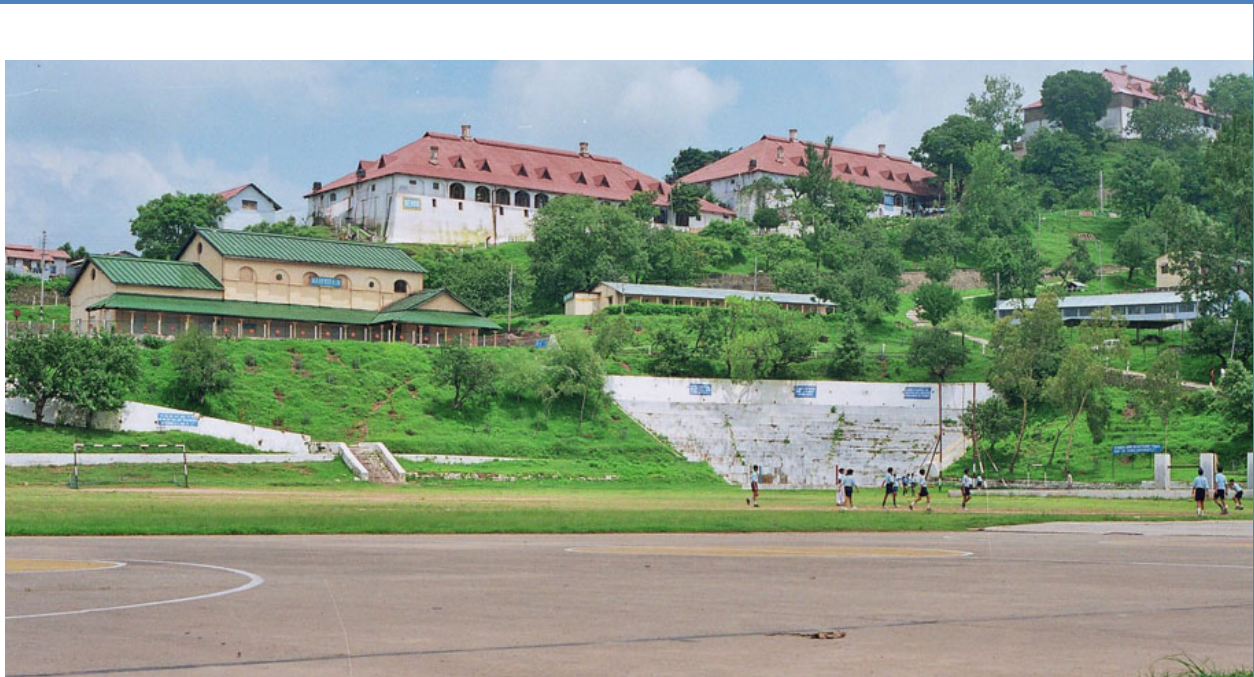

At Baba Resorts(Victoria Continental), Dharampur (Himachal Pradesh)

Indian Institute of Insurance Surveyors and Loss Assessors

Promoted by IRDA, Govt. of India

Dharampur

Dharampur is a town located in Solan, district of Himachal Pradesh. It is about 65 km from Shimla and 15 km from Kasauli on the National Highway no. 22. It is also connected by Kalka Shimla Railway Line. It houses the first T.B. Sanatorium in North India. C R.P.F camp on N.H 22 on Shimla road. Dharampur is situated on the Chandigarh - Shimla Highway which is also connected to Kalka through toy train.

Shimla

One of the most famous tourist destinations of India, Shimla is located in Himachal Pradesh which is a beautiful hill station. Also known as Simla, this beautiful hill station derives its name from "Goddess Shyamla", who is supposed to be an avatar of Goddess Kali. This lovely hill station was 'discovered' by the British who immediately fell in love with this place. In fact, they went to the extent of declaring Shimla as their summer capital. Shimla is one tourist destination that can be visited any time during the year. Summers are warm with cool and pleasant evenings while winters are bone chilling and the temperatures can fall below zero. But this difference is what makes Shimla all the more special!!
