Date: 15/09/2025

Dear Esteemed Members,

We have received concerns from several members regarding seminar registrations being filled within a very short time after the notices are uploaded on our website. As a result, many members in need of training hours have been disappointed due to the rapid closure of registrations.

To address this issue, we are sharing in advance the list of upcoming training programs that are presently under consideration and scrutiny. Members are kindly advised to remain attentive and visit our website regularly for official notifications, so as not to miss the opportunity to register once the programs are formally announced.
